A DISABLED VETERAN FINDS A WAY TO CONTINUE TO SERVE

Captain Pat Gillen, a long time Forest Ridge resident, is a nurse practitioner who cared for patients in medical centers and in the air at 39,000 feet has found a new way to serve the people of America.

Pat was a flight nurse in the USAF flying 210 missions and caring for 6,799 patients in aeromedical evacuation.

He also cared for tens of thousands of patients as a cardiac nurse, and wound management consultant treating non-healing wounds in clinics, home health care and rehab facilities. He was a friend to the terminally ill and their families.

Becoming 100% disabled due to a progressive illness acquired during evaluating combat training. He lost much of his hearing and balance and was forced to leave his profession in 2007.

Soon after becoming disabled, he found he could still inspire people and teach life lessons via sharing his understanding of the human heart. He has written books on Leadership, Death & Dying and most recently Westerns that serve as parables to inspire.

His most recent book, "The Quiet One". Is now available at most bookstores including online, and offers hope for struggling students, married couples struggling with debts, and all facing personal or family illness issues.

Call Tom at 937-371-9163 to make an appointment for pickup. If I don't answer, it is because I can't. However, leave a message and I will call back as soon as possible.
